The U.S. of Gass William H. Gass writes with high literary value, higher than most actually and if I had to categorize his writing in particular the short story collection "In The Heart of The Heart of The Country", I would call it Midwestern gothic, stream of consciousness, philosophy of isolation, but alas I'm barley an expert on literature, the English language and writing, but William H. Gass is an expert, one that besides from writing teaches philosophy at Purdue University ...
