Some might say Holly is an emotional roller coaster throughout the movie, and she's knitting something red (a cardigan, maybe?) in a scene where her old flame Paul arrives to visit her. The best part: she's using what appears to be a light fixture to tame her yarn as it rolls off the skein! Watch the Breakfast at Tiffany's knitting scene here.

That sense of isolation and distance has been a double-edged sword for the state's DIY community. On one hand, it has helped to incubate vibrant, tight-knit scenes in its small cities, and inspired artists to find creative ways to collaborate and join forces. But isolation also makes reaching new audiences a major challenge.
